COLIN'S RACING DAYS OVER.

KEENE'S INVINCIBLE COLT BREAKS DOWN AFTER A BRILLIANT BELMONT TRIAL.

Pulled Up Sound Apparently, but His Trainer Soon Discovered He Had Bowed the Tendons of Both Forelegs.

New York, May PS.—Colin, James R. Keene's great unheaten three-year-old, and classed by many as the best horse of recent years, broke down this morning, and it is improbable that he will ever again be seen in a race. Colin bowed in both forelegs and his case is considered hopeless.

The breakdown came after a particularly brilliant trial for the Behmont Stakes, to be run Saturday. Trainer Rowe wanted to work the horse one mile and a quarter in about 20s, but he was generous with his speed and, even with Rowe waving the boy back, Colin ran the mile in 1:385, and the mile and a quarter in 2:055. It was a splendid trial and those who witnessed it were more firmly convinced than ever of the greatness of the colt, and agreed that be held the big three-year-old lixture at his mercy. Colin left the track in first-rate condition, but half an hour later, when his trainer went to his stall, be found the colt bowed in both foreless. News of the injury was received at Beimont Park early in the afternoon, and regrets that the colt, which had become a popular idol through his grand racing, were expressed by horsemen and laymen affike. Keene was not at the track, but Rowe could hardly speak of the colt's injuries without shedding tears. "Colin was in better physical condition than be had ever been," he said. "The growth on his hock had almost entirely disappeared, and with this exception there was not so much as a pimple on him." While the full extent of the injuries had not been determined, Rowe did not helieve that the colt would ever race again. It is improbable that Mr. Keene would care to race him patched up, as he can now be retired to the stud full of the honors that go with an unbeaten record. Colin won twelve races last year and won his only start, the Withers Stakes, this season.

While much has been written about the good fortune of Mr. Keene with four year-old form, and now Colin, son of Commando, Disguise, winner of one of England's famous ten thousand-pound races. Cap and Bells, winner of the English Oaks and ma

CELT DEFEATS JACK ATKIN IN FAST TIME.

Juggler Wins for Odom.

New York, May 28.—In the Joekey Club Weightfor-Age Race Celt's race today was a sparkling one. Carrying his weight, 109 pounds, he faced a stiff wind for more than five furlongs, yet ran the mile and a furlong in 1:52, very close to the track record. Celt raced out near the middle of the track through the backstretch and in the stretch, and bore over to finish almost against the inner rail, so that he covered a long mile and a furlong. Dugan tried to place Jack Atkin, and this gave Celt the lead throughout, although Jack Atkin got on even terms with him when a furlong out. But the distance was too much for the latter, and it seems like a mistake to try to make this good horse go beyond his distance, although he finished very gamely. ST. JAMES STABLE GOES TO SEATTLE.

Louisville, Ky., May 28.—H. Clark & Co. will ship their string, which is composed of Green Seal. Hasty Agnes, Ida May, Shirley Rossmore, Dr. McCluer, Lady Souffle and Lotus Eater, to Seattle about the first of next week. Lou Marion, who at one time trained for Chris Smith when Yo Tambien, Maid Marian, Urania and Prince Carl were among the best thoroughbreds in the country, has charge of the Clark stable as trainer. In future it will be known as the St. James Stable.

GEMMELL AGAIN SHOWS LOSS OF FORM, JOCKEY GOLDSTEIN GETS INTO TROUBLE.

Runs Unplaced in Oakland's Feature Race-Bubbling Water the Only Winning Favorite

Oakland, Cak., May 28 .- Gemmell, William Walk

Oakland, Cal. May 28.—Gemmell, William Walker's recent $5,000 purchase, a heavily backed favorite despite his recent failure, ran unplaced in the feature race at Oakland today, Critic, at odds of 5 to 1, winning in the very last stride of a thrilling seven-furlongs struggle from Johnny Lyons, Massa and six others, including the famous Rubicon gelding just referred to.

It was somewhat out of the ordinary that the juvenile race should be the one on the card to furnish a winning favorite, but such was the case, Rubbling Water, at short odds, getting the verdict from a big field of youngsters. The finish was very close, and many spectators thought that Decorate had lasted long enough to win by a short head. In any event, the backers of Zella G, were mistakenly positive that the judges had overlooked her for third place and were wrong in awarding that position to the 150 to 1 chance. Miss Worth.

What was intended to be a big coup with Bromina in the opening race, developed into a fiasco, notwithstanding that Jack Keene's mare made good and in the most sensational fashion. As soon as the opening price, 30 to 1, was displayed in the ring, there was such a stampede to get on that the layers took fright and Bromina's price was cut to 3 to 1 before they would accept a wager. The manipulators did not get on until at the last moment and then for moderate amounts at 7 and 6 to 1.

Jockey C, Ross was fined $25 for cutting across

Jockey C. Ross was fined $25 for cutting across o the inside horses with Friar of Elgin in the fith race. Lisaro was badly cut down in his last race and will be incapacitated from racing for several months. The injury is severe, the front tendon of his right leg being nearly severed.

CLYDE HORSES THRIVING AT MONTREAL.

Montreal, Que., May 28.—The Blue Bonnets track

Montreal, Que., May 28.—The Blue Bonnets track was never in such good condition as it is now. The weather has been bright and hot for three weeks, and all the horses on the grounds are in good shape and rapidity getting up to racing form.

The Clyde two-year-olds were sent along today for the first time since coming here and surprised both their owner, Thomas Clyde, and Capt. W. F. Presgrave by running a half mile under restraint in 49½ seconds. The Blue Bonnets record for a half is 48 seconds, made by Burt G. Lewis, now dead. The youngsters here are the pick of the Clyde stable and consist of:

Mr. Clyde, who is here on a holiday trip and will remain until after the June meeting, is thinking of bringing his great steeplechaser Onward back from England. This horse is possibly the best two-miler in England, and is now so well thought of by the handleappers over there that he has been weighted out of everything. Cinders, perhaps the greatest mare that Mr. Clyde ever raced abroad, has been bred to an English stallion. She won eighteen out of twenty-one races on the flat, over the hurdles and through the steeplechase field.
The Montreal Jockey Club is spending several thousand dollars on a new macadam road to the track, and in other ways is doing everything possible to make those who patronize the race meeting, or bring horses here, comfortable. The meeting opens a week from Saturday.

PARI-MUTUEL BETTING IS SATISFACTORY.

Objections to Mechanical Betting Are Trivial-Many Points in Its Favor.

servation of the pari-mutuel machines, as operated here, and canvassing the opinions of all classes of racing men, the writer is ready to go on record that the machines have come to stay, at least so far as the Kentucky racing associations are concerned. As far back as lifteen years ago he advocated, in various influential publications with which he was connected, the use of the machines, believing the pari-mutuels to be the 'fairest and best method of race track speculation yet devised. The experiment now being successfully worked out at Churchill Downs has only served to confirm that early opinion.

The castern Jockey Club, almost immediately after its formation, devoted no little attention to the pari-mutuels, and it is a fact well known among well informed eastern turfmen that members of the Jockey Club would gladly have advocated the mutuel plan of speculation if conditions in New York state had been favorable to so radical a change.

Only two objections of any weight have been raised here to the use of the machines. One is that the betting is open and above board, and that an owner or trainer can have no stable secrets once the form of a horse has been displayed. His knowledge of his own horse is public property, and if he bets in the machines, every five dollars that he invests reduces his own winnings. The argument that the machines make stable information open to the public is only partly true. In the case of horses whose form has been exposed it certainly is true. But in the case of "dark" horses that have been prepared for certain events, and about which the public knows nothing, it is far from being true. On such horses an owner or trainer can get in the machines, on a moderate investment, probably as profitable, or more profitable, prices than he could get in the books.

Moreover, the machines are not intended for heavy speculation, but rather as a convenience to the public who wagers only small amounts. For the man who desires to bot big money, the auction pools to the machines.

A Bad-Looking Ride on Montclair Brings Him In definite Suspension.

Toronto, Ont., May 28 .- The defeat of Montclair in the Alexandra Purse, for which he was an oo on favorite, brought about the suspension of jor Goldstein at Woodbine this afternoon. Goldstein Goldstein i under contract to E. L. Talley. Montclair is a colt that was purchased by J. W. Pangle from Paul J. Rainey last year and afterward transferred to Talunder contract to E. L. Talley. Montclair is a colt that was purchased by J. W. Pangle from Paul J. Rainey last year and afterward transferred to Talley. He started here on the opening day of the meeting and was beaten off, finishing seventh. The next time out he beat Uncle Toby, Throckmorton and the Los Angeles Oaks winner, Lois Cavanagh, and on his showing in that race was made a big favorite in today's dash. The race looked like a gift for him and he was well backed by the public, but was outrun by Call Boy all the way and was heaten off a couple of lengths. Goldstein put up a bungling side on the colt, and his explanation to the stewards was evidently unsatisfactory, for after the race came a ruling which suspended the boy for the remainder of the meeting. It is understood that the presiding steward, Christopher J. Fitzgerald, will recommend that this jockey club revoke his gation of the case tomorrow.

The afterdance was again large and, outside of the third race, the sport was clean. Several of the finishes were very close, that in the Liverpool Cup especially so. It was impossible to tell, the winner in this race until the official placing was displayed and the judges' placing of Photographer first was popular. Glimmer's defeat was undoubtedly due to his being short. He showed a fine turn of speed in going to the front on the far turn and drew away into a commanding lead. Lack of condition told at the end, however, and in the interface of the short of the inside and this beat him. E. Walsh, who had the mount on Photographer, role a determined finish and it was his ride alone that was responsible for victory. This jockey is riding in his best form just now and this means that he is the best here.

Fred Burlew wired today that he would ship the three-year-old Dennis Stafford to Hamilton to start in the Derby there.

The entire Gerst string, numbering twenty, will be shipped from Louisville direct to Hamilton and James Healey, trainer for M. Murphy, will also send on his string from New York. From the present outlook, the meetings at both Hamilton and Montreal will be good ones. There are enough horses to guarantee large fields at both places and there should be no lack of material at either point. Terah and Petulant, a couple of Hamilton Derby eligibles, will be sent on from Louisville to start in that event.

The starter today suspended jockey E. Walsh for refusing to take Photographer to the outside position at the post. Photographer was fractious at the barrier and he was finally led to the outside by one of the assistant starters.

The yearlings of the Edenwold and Avondale Studs, which will be sold in the paddock at Woodbine Park on Monday, arrived here from Nashville this evening. They are a good-looking band and among them are brothers and sisters to some high-class horses. It is the first time in the history of racing that yearlings have been shipped from the states into the dominion to be sold at public auction and the indications are that the sale will be a successful one.

But as the winner of a Brooklyn Handicap he acquired a measure of prominence denied to the majority of good racers, and his competent trainer thought him capable of achieving triumphs of similar importance this year, an expectation destroyed when he was injured while running in the Metropolitan Handicap.

As a two-year-old he won but one race. was when he made his first start, which was in Expectation Stakes at Gravesend, May 21, 1906.

As a two-year-old he won but one race. This was when he made his first start, which was in the Expectation Stakes at Gravesend, May 21, 1996. At the end of a good race he was first by three-quarters of a length, with De Mund second, Senator Clay third, and W. H. Daniel unplaced. Afterwards he ran second to Charles Edward for the National Stallion Stakes at Belmont Park, third to Water Pearl and Ballot for the Great American Stakes at Gravesend, second to Oran for the Foam Stakes at Sheepshead Bay, third to Water Pearl and Peter Pan for the second half of the Double Event at the same track, third to Salvidere and Chascaway-for the Brighton Junior Stakes at Brighton Beach, and was unplaced in the Grand Union Hotel Stakes at Saratoga and the Holly Handicap at Gravesend, a respectable record, all but one of his races being in important stakes with good weight up.

Last year Superman made his first appearance in the Paumonok Handicap at Jamaica, April 27, and ran second to Red River, but was beaten six lengths at three-quarters in 1:13½. Then he finished sixth in Glorifier's Metropolitan and ran a good race, May 16 he won a purse at Belmont Park at a mile and a sixteenth. In this, with 112 pounds up, he defeated Dolly Spanker, Blandy and five more useful racers, and by running the distance in 1:44½ set a new track record and showed himself to be in rare fettle. His next start was in the Brooklyn Handicap, He carried 99 pounds and won. The track was muddy but safe. The other starters were Beacon Light, 100; Nealon, 114; Filip Flap, 112; Okenite, 93; Buttling, 107; Good Luck, 108; Go Between, 120; Sewell, 97; Beauclere, 94, and Oxford, 110. Go Between was the favorite and Superman the third choice at 5 to 1. Ridden by Miller he won from Beacon Light by a length in 2:09, with Nealon a close-up third. After that he won no more but was second to Peter Pan for the Belmont Stakes, with Frank Gill third. In all his racing record is as follows:

APACHE LOSES BY BOLTING.

UNRULY HORSE BOLTS ACROSS THE TRACK TWICE AND THEN BARELY FAILS TO WIN.

Topsy Robinson Takes a Race at Last-Turfmen at Louisville Preparing to Migrate to Other Tracks.

Louisville, Ky., May 28.—Today's ordinary card, some bad riding and unexpected form reversals combined to make the sport at Churchill Downs this afternoon anything but enjoyable for some of the speculators, but those who attended found pleasure in several close finishes.

The chief incident of the afternoon came with the running of the third race, for which Apache, ridden by Powers, was an overwhelming favorite. The horse was far in advance of his opponents on the stretch turn, when he suddenly bolted to the outer fence. This enabled Palamon and Estella C. to gain the lead and light it out, Palamon winning in the last few strides. Apache, after again attempting to run out opposite the paddock gap, straightened away and, finishing with a rush, landed third place in the closing stride. Powers, on his return to scale, was mjustly greeted with hoots and hisses, no lockey being able to prevent a horse from swerving or bolting.

Several supposed cracks made their debut in the opening race, a maiden race for two-year-olds, at four, and one-half furlongs. J. B. Respess, Rock-

Several supposed cracks made their debut in the opening race, a maiden race for two-year-olds, at four and one-half furlongs. J. B. Respess, Rock-castle, by Diek Welles-Hettle Green, and Warfield, owned by J. H. Lesh, have been showing phenomenal trials. They were made the choices in the race, but were both defeated rather handily, Semproni winning from Michael Angelo. Rockcastle showed high speed and ran impressively for a half, then tired as if short, but will probably improve and reverse this running. Warfield was green and also gives promise of developing into a useful racer.

Hugh McCarren finally managed to annex a purse, the first one since leaving New Orleans, with his Roseburg H. The colt had considerable weight off, and as he was entered with a poor band, he disposed of them near the end after a severe shaking up to stall off Fair Messenger.

By squeezing through a small opening in the stretch run, Camille managed to wear down St. Valentine after he appeared a certain winner. Pickens, on him, was umprepared for the winner's rush. Topsy Robinson showed her best form today and came away to an easy victory after Marmorean and Hollow had raced themselves into exhaustion in maintaining a fast pace for five furlongs. Hollow would have been second but for both stirrups breaking shortly after he left the post.

John Louis was much the best of a poor field that contested in the second race, but barely got up in time to beat Ben Sand out.

Five carloads of horses, the property of different owners, will be shipped to Latonia next Sunday.

THIRTY LEADING HORSES.

Several new arrivals crowded into places in the past week in the select list of the thirty leaders among the wiming horses, Colin, Stamina, Joe Madden and John M. P. being the new stars. Jack Atkin is still the leader, but if Colin carries off the Belmont Stakes tomorrow he will pass into premiership. Wiming the big stakes of the next few weeks must necessarily bring about rapid changes in this table, and it will not be long until many of the horses now figuring in it will be supplanted. (Continued from first page.) tioneer, receives $100 per day for his services and more than earns the money. Thus it can be seen that a goodly portion of the rake-off goes toward paying the expenses of running the new system of more than earns the money. Thus it can be seen that a goodly portion of the rake-off goes toward paying the expenses of running the new system of speculation.

Besides these two chief objections to the use of the machines, their introduction has, of course, thrown a large number of bookmakers and bookmakers' clerks out of employment, temporarily at least. That, of course, is to be regretted, but it has nothing to do with the comparative merits of the pari-mutuel and the bookmaking systems of speculation.

As opposed to all the arguments that have been put forward against the machines, there are also two very important, and vitally important, reasons why, and especially at this juncture, their use, in sections where they can be used, is bound to be of great benefit to the turf. Chief of these reasons is the fact that the machines almost entirely do away with the scandal, and meonsiderate and irresponsible talk, that attended racing when the speculation was carried on through the medium of books. Bookmakers and their clerks do not now gather in lotel corridors and loudly leave the worst of impressions in the mind of anyone not familiar with the sport. There is no loud-monthed talk that this horse was "pulled," or that some particular owner "got his" from the rear end of the book instead of betting his money in front as an honest man should do.

There is none of this. The machines have no runners or agents that can be traveling back and forth between the paddeck and the betting ring. They have no agents to worm into the confidence of successful jockeys and to put up jobs. In short, they do not handle any "dead ones" at all, such as formerly occasionally became defunct through betting ring factics. Of course, horses are run short with mutuel betting just as they have heretofore been with the machines in use, there can be no betting ring contivance. They are stopped by the owner, trainer or jockey in order to secure a better price some other time. There is no going back behind the machines and getting whatever money Weight today 111. The other argument in favor of the machines is hat the pari-mutuel is simply a public pool. Of ourse, that goes out of the pockets of the public, the property of the pockets of the public, and there have been frequent occasions at the spring nectings here when three or four lucky bookmakers ave taken $125,000 to $150,000 out of the public nstead of the much smaller amount the privilege of speculate is costing them now. AL. FOREMAN draws the attention of his clients to the coming meeting at GRAVESEND.

I am on my own stamping ground, the scene of my triumph, where I discovered last year and sent and many others.

My record is too well known, as far as winning information is concerned, to go into details, and the sources I derive my infromation from cannot be equaled by anybody, as they are the most exclusive in the country. Every horse I advise is fit and ready, and when I wire same, the right money is down. The coming Gravesend meeting promises to be better for my clients than any heretofore, and I have left nothing undone to make it the most successful of my career. I will advise daily "a one best bet," which, at Gravesend last year, netted a clear PROFIT OF $1,980.00 on $20.00 bets. In the same telegram will be included two daily track specials, but understand, if a track special wins and the best bet should lose, it is never claimed as a winner. I never misrepresent.

During the closing part of Belmont, owing to the abundaince of scratches and bad conditions of the track, most horses were kept in reserve for the coming Gravesend meeting, where I am in the know on many a killing which is being planned, and have already over ten horses tabbed, whose phenomenal work-outs and private information convince me that my clients will reap a harvest by following my instructions religiously and placing equal bets on anything I send out. I never spare the expense to get in right, and results will again prove who is who in this line of information.

YOU MUST WIN if you adhere to my advice and have no judgment of your own, as I employ the most expert men in the country. Among horses sent out last week were such as:

GRANIA 7-1 2nd
Beaten a nose.

r the longest consecutive run of winners. Beware of fake wires. None genuine unless they me direct from New York. Address all tele-cams, remittances, complaints of any kind to AL. FOREMAN, 2 Stuyvesant St., New York City.

ED. TRAYNOR.

ANNOUNCEMENT!

I wish to state to my many friends that the horse advertised to start today, May 28th, at Belmont Park will not go, as the animal has shown a tendency to bear out to the right side of the Belmont Park track, which has the reverse way of running, the horse having been trained on the Gravesend track, and as the people who are engineering this coup will not take any chances of even coming second, have decided to start at Gravesend

MONDAY, JUNE 1st.

The horse has worked, on two occasions, five furlongs in one minute with a heavy boy up to mislead the clockers, and can win and will win by open daylight on Monday. It will prove that I Am Again On the Inside, back to the same old position and able to place before the public the cream of information.

Opportunity of a Lifetime.

for those who will follow me Monday, as we will all enjoy the good, old Miss Buttermilk days.

3,000 Per Cent. Profit for every dollar you invest on this horse on Mon-day, as I expect the price to be 30-1, and if you bet with confidence, you will certainly have cause to be happy Monday night.

My Word is My Bond. When I advertise a horse, I mean what I say, I always send out a horse which is working under cover and ready for a coup, and I obtain my information from a source which can only be reached after a friendship of many years and the most liberal expenditure of money.

My Guarantee is always iron clad. If this horse does not win at 15-1 or better, I will send you my two best bets of the Gravesend meeting. If one does not win, I will send you back your subscription for this winner.

Terms: Five Dollars. Remit by mail, money order or special delivery or telegraph. Positively no other terms enter-tained. Name of horse will reach you spelled backwards, Monday, day of race. Address, ED. TRAYNOR. P. O. Office Box 11, Station J, NEW YORK CITY.
